IN HARD LUCK.

The Claimant of a Fifteen-Million-Dollar Estate to Be Sent to an Alms-house.

HAZIERON, Pa., Feb. 16.—John Moser, nephew of Burkhardt Moser, whose estate is said to be worth some $15,000, 000 and claimed to be illegally held by the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Co., was last evening removed from his home by officers, he having become violently insane.

Litigation between the Moser heirs and the coal company has been kept up for years, and a decision is now pending before the Schuylkill county

Suicide of May Brooklyn.

Miss May Brooklyn, a well-known actress and leading lady of the A. M. Palmer stock company, who appeared in "Alabamas," committed suicide at San Francisco Thursday night by taking carbolic acid. Playgoers will remember that they saw the actress first in "Alabamas," picking flowers at the front of the stage. The cause of Miss Brooklyn's suicide is said to have been grief over the death of Frederick A. Loverett, secretary of the Cooney Island Jockey Club, and some time prior to his death manager of Palmer's Theatre in New York. Loverett committed suicide some months ago by taking carbolic acid and shooting himself. After his death Miss Brooklyn became despondent, and frequently intimated her intention of following his example. She had been on the stage for 15 years, and made her first appearance with Robert Downing and was later a member of Harry Laocy's company.

The Maroon Postoffice.

B. F. Shipley, as stated the other day, was appointed postmaster at Maroon. The other candidate for the office was T. C. Grady, editor of the Maroon Times. At an election held last summer, Mr. Grady was the choice of the people for postmaster. He got left. In the Times of this week, among other comments on the Shipley appointment, Mr. Grady has this to say:

The news was of course expected in some quarters, but a vast majority of the local Democrats had reason to believe that the result would be different. They believed this because at a Democratic primary over a year ago they expressed a choice for postmaster. But it seems the department at Washington paid no attention to this, and accordingly made another selection. * * * It is not so much the appointment of Shipley, but the method of selecting him that has caused the feeling of reticence on the part of the Democrats in the matter, and that they must sit quietly down and permit a higher power to settle such grave questions.

Evening Whist Party.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Young and Mrs. M. B. Nelson gave a most enjoyable whist party last evening at their home on Prairie avenue. Twenty married ladies and gentlemen were in attendance. William Voorhies gained the largest number of points in the game among the gentlemen, and was given as a prize a handsome silver paper knife with gold engravings. The prize for the winning lady, a delicate piece of china, fell to Mrs. C. A. Ewing. A profusion of yellow and red tulips were used with great taste and skill in the decorations of the house. At the close of the game a tempting supper was served. The party was not a large affair, but was really a very complete and handsome entertainment.

The Power of the Press.

"The Power of the Press" enters on the third year of its exceedingly successful run, and the play continues to draw crowded houses and enthusiastic audiences at every performance. The demand for seats this season is very large. As a scenic production "The Power of the Press" has not been excelled in many years. The scenes showing a ship yard, the new Manhattan Athletic club house, a shipping office on South street, and a huge vessel at anchor off the Battery, are marvels of realism. Manager Eitor has provided a very strong cast, and individual successes have been made by several members of the company. It will be presented at the Grand on next Tuesday evening.

We desire to announce to the trade that our Custom Shirt Department is now in readiness, and shirts to measure, in any style, white shirts, domestic and imported Perale, Madras and Oxford, made of best material at hand, will be manufactured on short notice and under our own supervision. The April Fool Comedy.
The favorite character comedian, Gus Williams, and his capital company of comedians, appeared at the Grand last night and kept everybody laughing heartily for over two hours. Williams is an ideal German comedian, and received many encores. Sager Midgley as simple Sammy, is a good card. Charles H. Burroughs is also a hard and favorite worker. He assumes three characters, and each is a good one. In the whistling specialty Burroughs made a hit. Lillian Elma is a very sweet singer. The entire company is good.

A BLOODY BATTLE

Between Mexican Rebels and Regular Troops.

THE FORMER FOULY SLAUGHTERED.

Those Not Killed in Battle Shot or Hanged—The Temochians Wiped Out of Existence.

DEMING, N. M., Feb. 17.—Reports from Old Mexico, which reached here yesterday evening, state that the Temochians have been about wiped out of existence. In addition to the battle which occurred out from the city of Chihuahua some time ago, the government troops to the number of 200 met the rebels on February 8, south of Elvia, about forty miles south of Casas Grande, and 500 miles south of Deming, and killed seventy-five of the Temochians. Twenty-five were taken prisoners and immediately after the hard fighting were taken out and shot, some few being strung up to trees.

The information was brought into the Mormon colony below Palomas, and in turn to Deming. The country in which the fight occurred is very wild and mountainous and like the Chihuahua, the rebels were caught and killed in a canyon. The Temochians were composed of the small bands which have been hiding out in the mountains to the south of Palomas, but which recently concentrated for the purpose of meeting the troops. Santa Ana Peres was in command of the rebels, but is reported to have escaped. The soldiers had about fifty killed and wounded, including several officers.

DAMAGING ADMISSIONS

By Emile Henry, the French Anarchist—A Violent Scene—Arrested.

PARIS, Feb. 17.—Emile Henry, the anarchist who threw the bomb in the case of the Hotel Terminus, was on the stand at length yesterday, and was questioned by Judge Meyer, the examining magistrate in the case. Henry admitted that he made the bomb which was found several days ago in the Banque de la Societe Generale. He added that he had put together just recently two bombs besides the one used by him Monday evening, but denied that he knew where they were.

After the examination by Judge Meyer, Henry was taken before Judge Espinas, who is dealing with the evidence concerning the explosion at the police station in the Rue des Bons Enfants a year ago last November. He was confronted with Paul Bernard, each had been told that the other had confessed, and a violent scene followed their meeting.

An anarchist suspected of destroying the papers in Henry's room between the latter's arrest and the police search was arrested last evening.

A meeting of representatives of union miners at Wellsburg, Mountville, Elm Grove, Glendale and Wheeling, met in this city yesterday, and formally decided to accept the rate for mining adopted by the miners and operators of Ohio last week. They appointed a committee to wait upon the operators in the district to notify them that the miners were ready to go to work at the rate of 50 cents a ton, a cut of 19 cents from the price paid last summer.

A Sublime Spectacle.
MONTREY, Mex. Feb. 17.—Extensive forest fires have been raging for the past several days in the mountains surrounding this city, and the scene at times is of the most sublime nature. Thousands of acres of timber and good grazing lands have been burned over and considerable other property destroyed. No reports of loss of life have been received.

SPECIAL FROM FROSTLAND.

[FOR THE REPUBLICAN]
It were easy to live
If people would give.
Of their abundance and repeat it o'er and o'er.
We could live pretty snug And last all the time If supplied by the Charity Store.

But we are requested to work.
And none of us think We should stand around by the door:
For a dollar a day
Is pretty fair pay For goods at the Charity Store.

But what if they say That a dollar a day,
Is too small, we ought to have more.
If we don't show our mug We will get our grub Just the same at the Charity Store.

Don't grumble and kick.
Because you can't pick
The best there is on the floor:
Take what you can get.
If it don't always fit,
When you are fed by the Charity Store.

Do not find fault With things that are brought You folks who come by the score.
But be thankful my friends, God surely does send Those things for the Charity Store.

Do not be greedy.
Although you are needy.
Those goods are the same as of yore So contented and free On what they do give
Of the goods at the Charity Store.

And when we are poor
We have to endure
For without wings we're unable to soar.
We must stay here and live On what people will give Of those goods at the Charity Store.

There are poles to be set And lines to be connected.
And no money in sight, we deplore Put it is the best we can do.
For they can't pay a sou, Only good from the Charity Store.

Please accept our thanks,
All the people and banks,
For keeping the wolf from the door—
By devoting this plan To help all you can
For charity's sake, at the Charity Store.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness bestowed upon us, during our late bereavement.

MISCELLANEOUS.

--Hard Lines--Tom--"What's the matter? Torpid liver?" Jack--"No, Bilkins has been reading some of his poetry to me."--Detroit Free Press.

--Cane, chocolate, hominy, maize, opossum, tomato, tomahawk and some others have come to us from various Indian languages.

"I say, Weggie, lend me a five?"
"Sorry, old man, but I've only got three." "Well, lend me that and you'll owe me two!"--Wrinkle.

"Who was Louis XIV. of France?" asked the teacher "I know," said little Miss Fifthave "He was the man who made all our chairs."

--Old Gentleman (to contented-looking workman--"I am glad to see, young man, that you do not think your work beneath you" Workman--"No, sir, I'm a ceiling decorator."

--It is very pleasant to follow one's inclinations, but, unfortunately, we cannot follow them all; they are like the teeth sown by Cadmus--they spring up, get in each other's way and fight.
--L. E. Landon.

--Croft was an enclosed field, and in various modifications gave its name to Crofter, Meadowcroft, Rycroft, Bancroft, which was originally Banecroft, Berecroft, that is Barleycroft and Hay-croft.

--An interesting inter-racial game of cards at Winnemucca, Nev., was rudely disturbed--the account does not state that it was entirely broken up--by one of the players, an Indian, shooting and instantly killing another Indian and a squaw and wounding a colored man, a Chinaman and two other Indians.

--Heretofore the convict labor of Minnesota has always been given to the highest bidder, but at the last meeting the board of prison managers found themselves in a predicament that has never existed since the state was organized, no bid having been received from October 1, 1893, to October 1, 1895, which places 400 convicts on its hands with no work for them to do.

--In 1794 Joshua Pine settled on a farm near Walton, N. Y., and planted a fine orchard. Although nearly ninety-nine years ago when the trees were first planted, they do not show much signs of their great age and a number of the trees are yet vigorous, giving promise of many years of life and fruitage. The largest measures 177 1/2 inches in circumference, the next largest 105 inches, and another 103 inches, all of which are bearing a good crop of fruit this year.

--Delaware has been turned into something very like a great game preserve. A strong association, chartered by the legislature, has for some years past been stocking the wilder parts of the little commonwealth with the finest game birds. The concern is influential enough to procure from time to time penal legislation in protection of its game and in spite of some protests from local sportsmen not members of the corporation, these laws are so strictly enforced that the game is constantly increasing.

--The erratic Missouri river is threatening, and will most likely soon accomplish, the complete destruction of the town of East Atchison, Mo., on the opposite bank from Atchison, Kan.
The stream has been eating a new channel for several months, and during the past summer has washed away over 300 acres of land. It is now within an eighth of a mile of East Atchison, and the destruction of the little town with many thousands of dollars' worth of valuable property, is regarded as inevitable, and the people are moving away as rapidly as possible.

--Mexican dollars in great plenty have lately struck some Maine towns, and there is much interested speculation as to where they come from.
Thirty were taken in one day by a Biddeford merchant, and they have appeared in circulation in Lewiston, Bangor and other towns. It is suggested that hard times has brought out some old miser's hoard. Other suggestions are more picturesque, but less likely.
Some of the smart folks are appraising them at the rate of sixty-one cents, but with many they pass at par.

--"One of the oddest pieces of work we have yet had to do," said a New York typewriter, "came in the other day. The manuscript, covering half a dozen loosely written small pages was in a woman's hand. It scheduled the 'daily work of a domestic servant. The request was that we typewrite it so as to leave a wide margin on the right side of each page. The lady had just hired a Swedish servant who speaks no English. Each item of the schedule was to be repeated in Swedish on the margin of the page, and the English was typewritten that the girl might the more easily make out the foreign words."

--The first settlement in Tennessee was made by immigrants from North Carolina, led by James Robinson, on the Watauga river, one of the head streams of the Tennessee, in 1768.
It was on lands of the Cherokees, from whom the settlers obtained an eight-year lease in 1771. They there organized themselves into a body politic and adopted a code of laws signed by each adult member in the colony. Others soon joined them, and extended settlements down the valley of the Holston and other intervening regions to the Climoh and one or two other streams, while others penetrated Powell Valley, and began a settlement in the southwest corner of Virginia.

--"One who goes on a pedestrian tour nowadays," said a man who has just returned from a brief tour afoot, "may be surprised at the number of men he will meet on bicycles. The bicyclist of to-day undertakes long journeys with great confidence, and he seems to find keen enjoyment on the swift-moving, silent wheel. And it may also surprise the pedestrian the number of people he will meet driving about the country. He may meet today, for instance, two young men who are spending their vacation in this manner; he may meet to-morrow a professional man seeking rest and recreation in the same way; the next day he may meet somebody else; and they are driving through the country of the beaten track and finding it nature a rugged, smiling, strength-giving friend.

CURIOSITIES OF TASTE.

Distribution on the Tongue of the Several Gustatory Nerves.

The sense of taste in human beings has been divided into four classes-- sweet, bitter, salt and acid. These four classes, with their combinations, produce all the delicious sensations that we ascribe to taste, as well as all the disagreeable impressions of that sense.

But the tongue is not equally sensitive in all parts to these sensat ons.
Indeed it has been shown that different tastes result from the same stimulus when applied to different places on the tongue. The tip of the tongue, for instance, is most sensitive to sweet and to acid tastes, while it is far less capable of perceiving a bitter taste than any other part of the organ. Some persons are unable to perceive any bitter taste when quinine is applied only to the tip of the tongue. At the back of the tongue the bitterness of the drug is perceived at once.

An explanation of the curious selective powers exhibited by the tongue is that a variety of nerve fibres are present in that organ, each kind being sensitive only to one of the four principal classes of taste. These nerve fibres are distributed in varying numbers over different parts of the tongue.

At the tip, for instance, the nerves which are sensitive to sweet and acid stimuli are most numerous, and accordingly in that locality those tastes are the ones most readily perceived. At the back of the tongue, on the other hand, the nerve fibres concerned in the perception of bitterness prevail over the others.

A singular proof of the fact that on particular parts of the tongue one sort of nerve fibres may overpower and mask the effect of another sort is furnished by placing sulphate of magnesia on the back of the tongue. At first only a strong bitter taste is perceived, but when the nerves producing the bitter taste are paralyzed, as they may be by the application of the drug called gymnema, without affecting the other nerves, then a slight acid taste becomes evident.

Thus even our slightest sensations of pleasure or pain are the result of a complicated system of nerve fibres and nerve endings, and while we can begin to perceive that certain nerves possess certain powers or are sensitive to certain impressions and not to others, yet the cause of these differences remains to be discovered. Man has only fairly begun to carry out the old precept:
"Know thyself."--Youth's Companion.

OTTO E. CURTIS & BRO.

WE CAN'T DO IT AGAIN.

We presume that everybody understands that we cannot duplicate the offer we are now making on the James A. Banister fine shoes for men. The only reason why we are able to make the prices which we are now making on these goods is that we purchased them at 52c cents on the dollar of the wholesale cost price after the failure of Ferriss & Co. We therefore can offer them at the price we are now selling them at, although we do not expect and cannot hope that we will be able to replace these goods next year and sell them at anything like this money. The James A. Banister line of Men's Fine Shoes is famous the world over for correctness in style, thoroughness in workmanship, perfect in fit and high quality material. The Cordovan shoes are known under the various names of Horsehide, Coltskin, etc., and some people make a great talk about them as at a low price when they are sold regularly at $4 and $5 per pair. There are no better shoes of this kind than those of the Banister make and we are running them out, either Calf or Cordovan, at the unheard of price of

Ask any shoe dealer to duplicate this price on this kind of a shoe and he will tell you that it cannot be done. He will tell you that it is impossible, and we say he is right, for it is impossible under all conditions other than those in a case like ours. We own the goods at 52c on the dollar and if we want money bad enough to sell them at a figure which is impossible in our ordinary business, that is our affair. We find that the gentlemen of Decatur all want a high grade shoe when they can get it at such a low price.

The Men's Goodyear Welt Shoes which we are selling at $1.89 are commonly called hand-sewed and are as good as any one needs for wear. They are made out of the finest calf and are great for wear. They sell regular at $3.50 and $4 in all the stores. The sale on both of these lines of shoes have been unprecedented. We want you to come at once for the pairs which you wish to buy.

Remember, We Can't Do It Again.

We continue the sale of Ladies' Rochester fine hand turn shoes, made to sell at $4 for $1.79. Also the sale of Ladies' Fine Machine Sewed Shoes, made by the same manufacturer and over the same last, made to sell at $3 per pair. Take as many pairs of them as you want at $1.39 per pair.

We are determined to make this January the largest in the amount of sales of any in the history of the store. We have the bottom knocked out of the prices. Come and get what you want in shoes. The like of this opportunity will not appear again.

In the mail to-day the REPUBLICAN received a special invitation from the Majestic Manufacturing Co., of St. Louis, to witness the marriage of Miss Annie Collins and Ross Baldwin at 8 p. m., Feb. 21, at the store of C. Perhaps the couple will receive a bed room set for consenting to be the principals in the spectacle.

TO-DAY Sheriff Perl telegraphed to Warden Allen at the Joliet penitentiary, asking if he will be permitted to deliver two Macon county prisoners at the state prison. He has not received an answer yet. Because of prevalence of small-pox at Chicago, and at various points in the state, the warden has been a little particular of late in the admission of convicts. He requires careful scrutiny and physicians' certificates of good health.
